player´s overall impression:

Yakubu is endowed with prodigious physical ability, being tall and sharp, and possessing a high technical quality. In addition, he is a central defender who handles the ball well. He reads the game well and executes satisfactorily the work of building play. Yakubu is trustworthy raising the ball and combining in short passes. He consistently wins his one against one challenges and passes quickly and accurately. Yakubu has got a very good placement on the field and is strong in the air, both on offense and defense. His long diagonal passes are impressive. He is, finally very aware of his own strengths and weaknesses.
